MindBridge freedom

MindBridge Freedom is a reservation-less conference service in which the user can conduct conferences anytime, from anywhere. Its unique features and 'pay as you use' platform not only give you all the advantages of conventional conferencing, but also ensure maximum convenience, cost control and ease of use.

MindBridge Freedom can be used effectively for day-to-day enterprise working like weekly status reporting, follow-up meetings, periodical updates, functional presentations, etc.

MindBridge Agenda

MindBridge Agenda is highly scalable and customised package to suit your conferencing needs. This is a reservation-based conference service for your planned virtual meetings, events and town halls. It provides the comfort of a pre-reserved conference confirmed over the phone or email, where a conference room is reserved, and if required, the operator can dial-out the users at the time of the conference.

MindBridge Agenda is best suited for long weekly meetings, special need calls, meetings with customers and associates, investor relations and customer negotiation calls.
